Farm accidents claim as many as 300 children's lives per year!

SAFETY ACRES is a fun and interactive way for children ages 7 – 11 to learn about some of the most common hazards on a farm and how to avoid injury in those situations.

Mary Sanders, Buchanan County Health Department, teaches children about the dangers of unidentified liquids in the small group session, “Look-alike chemicals.”

Children learn how much strength is needed to save a life during the session “Grain Bin Suffocation.”

Jim Crawford, University of Missouri Outreach and Extension office, explains the dangers of Power Take Off (PTO) equipment.
