

Family Financial Education:

The Key to Enhancing Financial Literacy

University of Missouri Extension Family Financial Education programming targets the financial concerns and issues facing Missouri consumers. Programs focus on helping families master control of their financial resources, increase their skill in financial decision making, and expand their capacity to set and achieve financial goals.

Educational information and programs are available on the following family financial education topics:

- Credit Repair/Management
- Debt Management
- Budgeting/Savings
- Banking Services
- Predatory Lending
- Healthcare Initiative
- Consumer education/buying skills
- Post-Retirement Planning
- Identity Theft/Consumer protection
- Decision Making Skills
- Spending Plan
- Taxes
- First Time Home Buyer
- Financial Recovery

For more information, contact Dedra Thomas, Family Financial Education Specialist, University of Missouri Extension, 135 W. Market, Warrensburg, Mo. 64093
Phone: 660/747-3193, Fax: 660/747-9867, E-mail: thomasded@missouri.edu

Equal opportunity is and shall be provided to all participants in Extension programs and activities, and for all employees and applicants for employment on the basis of their demonstrated ability and competence without discrimination on the basis of their race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability or status as a Vietnam-era veteran. This policy shall not be interpreted in such a manner as to violate the legal rights of religious organizations or military organizations associated with the armed forces of the United States of America.