

Social Media Marketing Made Simple

Date:

November 6, 2014

Location:

Cedar County Library, 717 East St., Stockton, Mo. 65785

Time:

7:00 p. m.

Speaker/Bio

Kimberly Beer, Midnight Production Inc.

- is an enthusiastic student (and teacher) of modern marketing methods.
- devotes her time to searching for new and better ways to help her clients and students promote their small businesses.
- is also an award-winning photographer, writer and graphic designer.
- an entrepreneur since 1993.

Topics Covered

- Learn more on how social media can benefit their organization.
- Learn how social media can help feed your business or organizations with more customers, referrals, donations, members, and prospects.
- talk about all the popular channels like Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Pinterest, Google+ and which ones will work best for you and your business as well as tips for time management, content and best practices.

Fee:

$10 per person
Paid by November 4
at Cedar County MU
Extension Center

To Register:

Contact the Cedar County
MU Extension Center
(113 South Street,
Stockton, MO) at (417)
276-3313 by November 4

Questions:

Contact Cedar County
MU Extension Center
at (417) 276-3313 or by email at
cedarco@missouri.edu

Program Presented By:

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
 Extension
Live. And Learn.

 Cedar County
Library
District
Your Information Center