DELL CORNELL MEMORIAL AWARD
FOR OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEER TO 4-H

The Dell Cornell Memorial Award was established in 1988 to recognize individuals in Boone County who have contributed significant time and effort to the 4-H Youth Program. This award is sponsored by the Dell Cornell family of Boone County. Individuals who are considered for this award are those who have made enormous contributions to the 4-H program for an extended period of time and who have been extensively involved with their communities. Nominations for the Dell Cornell Memorial Award can be made by anyone involved with the 4-H program (parents, project leaders, club leaders, etc.) Application is due Friday, September 30, 2011.
