

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
M Extension

$5 CLASSES

Erosion Prevention & Contemporary Garden Topics

November 10th: Erosion Prevention

Date of classes:
November 10th &
December 2nd

Time of class:
6pm-9pm

- Urban Erosion and Sediment Pollution-by Allen Thompson, MU's Biological Engineering/Hydrology
- Common Erosion Problems in Jefferson City and Their Remedies-City of Jefferson
- Instructions for cost effective approaches to remedy typical erosion problems- Tony Hoover, NRCS Cole County District Conservationist

December 2nd: Contemporary Garden Topics

Both classes will be held at the Cole County Extension Center 2436 Tanner Bridge Rd. Jefferson City, MO 65101

- Honeybees native pollinators- review of colony collapse disorder & how other pollinators fill gaps- by Richard Houseman, MU Extension Entomologist
- Organic Fruit Gardening- by James Quinn, MU Regional Horticulture Specialist
- Community Gardens- why sudden interest, where are they, & what are some opportunities- by Bill McKelvey, MU Extension Associate and Nadia Navarrette-Tindall, LU Horticulturist

Classes:
6pm-9pm

