Make Your Money Count

Ever feel overwhelmed in managing your personal finances or wonder why you run out of money at the end of each month?

1 + 3 = Reduced Stress and Increased Satisfaction
1 program: 3 workshops

WHO: Adults who want to be financially organized

WHAT: Making Money Count Program

WHEN: Thursday, April 9 and 16; 6:00 – 8:00 PM
    Thursday, April 23; 7:00 – 8:00 PM

WHERE: Carrollton Public Library
One North Folger Street, Carrollton, MO

WHY: find out how you can make an amazing difference in your life.
It’s surprising and incredible how a simple process and a few financial tips can reduce stress and help you feel more in control of your finances.
Insight gained and ideas offered, if implemented, will guarantee positive results with your personal finances and help you be successful in working toward financial satisfaction and well-being.

Program is open to all adults of all ages.

HOW: To Register, call 660-542-1792 (Carroll County Extension Center)
Class size is limited to twenty, so register early!

Cost is only $25 per person for all three sessions.* The first five registered attendees will receive a record-keeping portfolio, so register early and no later than Monday, April 6.
(Workshops will be held only if the program has six or more people registered before April 7).

*Limited number of scholarships are available and based on income.

Workshop topics:
1st workshop: Money – understanding how it impacts our lives and relationships. Presentation and activities will offer insight into your money personality, steps for making good decisions and ways to develop positive, effective communication skills.

2nd workshop: Take control of your finances. Activities include starting your own financial plan, writing goals and going through steps to create a spending plan based on current finances and a balanced budget.

3rd workshop: Get organized. Save time and money with a record-keeping system. Reduce worry for your loved ones by making sure you have the important documents in life.
