What is Jr. Leaders?

The purpose of Jr Leaders is to teach youth the importance of understanding themselves as leaders and how to apply leadership skills in a team setting as well as assist them in identifying opportunities to practice their leadership skills.

Through active participation, Jr Leaders will interact with business, community and government leaders, educators and extension staff to explore ways to contribute to the Urban Region.

Beyond leadership and service, Jr. Leaders provides a social network for teens within the Urban Region.

OBJECTIVES:

- Practice the life skills of decision making, communicating with others, leading self and others, planning, organizing and implementing programming as well as learning to learn productively.
- Identify leadership skills within one's self.
- Be able to apply leadership skills to real life experiences in one's own community.
- Influence and support others in a positive manner towards achieving common goals.
- Build on strengths of self and others.

Leadership is finding opportunities that match your skill set.

WHAT DOES THAT CONVERSATION LOOK LIKE?

- How to write short and long term goals.
- Develop a plan for an activity or meeting.
- Leadership opportunities in our region.
- Leadership styles and the advantages of working as a team.
- Youth as leaders in the community.
- What is the definition of leadership?
- What are the types of motivation and how would you describe them?
- Work to identify needs and create solutions.
