One purpose of the 4-H/FFA animal projects is to teach young people how to feed, fit and show their animals. The more important purpose is to provide an opportunity for personal growth and development of the young person. This statement has been used for years to justify the livestock projects.

1 Trustworthiness includes honesty, promise keeping, and loyalty.
   Feeds and waters the animals daily (promise keeping).
   Adheres to possession deadlines (honesty).
   Adheres to withdrawal time on drugs and de-wormers.
   Uses only approved drugs.
2 Respect includes courtesy and proper treatment of people and things.
   Handles and treats animals humanely.
   Cares for animals properly.
   Listens to and follows advice of advisors.
3 Responsibility includes the pursuit of excellence, accountability and perseverance.
   Feeds and waters the animal daily (even on busy, difficult days).
   Goes beyond providing the daily needs of the animal in giving additional time and attention to produce a winner.
   Adheres to deadlines for entry form and for arrival for livestock shows.
   Never give up in the showing (perseverance)
4 Fairness involves consistently applying rules and standards appropriate for different age groups and ability levels.
   Feeds only approved livestock rations.
   Uses only approved drugs.
   Accepts winning or losing with grace.
   Follows recommended procedure in the showing.
   Follows recommended procedures for fitting and grooming an animal.
5 Caring promoting the well-being of people and things in a young person’s world. It denotes action and not just feeling.
   Feeds and waters animal daily.
   Provides clean barn/stall for animal.
   Treats animal humanly at all times.
6 Citizenship includes making the home, community and country a better place to live for themselves and others.
   Accepting instruction.
   Winning and losing with grace.
   Helping others at stock shows.
   Teaching younger members.
   Treating animals humanly.
   Ensuring that meat is safe for consumption.
Gentry County 4-H

The Gentry County 4-H consists of 3 clubs, the County Liners Club-King City, Lucky Clover Club-Stanberry, and Pleasant Dorsey Club-Albany. We have a total membership of 80 4-H’er’s and Clover Kids. The leaders this year are: Cas Derks & Barb DeJoode, King City, Lisa Craig & Marci Sager, Stanberry, and Betty Grace & Mitzi Bennett Steele, Albany. The clubs have a total of 57 projects and 40 volunteers teaching the projects. We had 17 members attend 4-H camp at Crowder State Park near Trenton this year. 4-H helps develop young people into leaders and to develop life skills. If you would like more Information on how to become a member, please contact the Gentry County Extension Office at 660-726-5610 or email Janet Sager, Youth Program Associate @ sagerj@missouri.edu.

Gentry County FFA

The FFA Mission

FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education. Gentry County FFA consists of 3 chapters in Stanberry, Albany, and King City. Each chapter is involved in state and national events, career development events, and public speaking. The FFA Organization is also involved with community service projects throughout the area. Our area FFA advisors are: Rod Walker-Stanberry, Stuart Shiflett-King City, Marshall Swafford-Albany and Deborah Swafford-Albany.
