

Examples of University of Missouri Extension Programs in Vernon County

- 4-H youth development
- Improving crop and pasture growth
- Efficient livestock production
- Personal finance management
- Counseling new and existing businesses
- Nutrition and strength programs
- Firefighter training
- Help with family issues
- Community leader development

Your help is needed to create A Legacy of Learning

Vernon County has a long history of supporting Extension programming, which has been helping people in the county for 90 years. County commissioner funding and United Community Funds are examples of the long-standing support for programs such as Agriculture, Nutrition, Business Development and 4-H. The Vernon County Extension Council Endowment Fund has the objective of developing long-range financial support for Extension programming in Vernon County.

A Legacy of Learning

Vernon County Extension

Past, Present, Future

Photos by Trinnade Hughes

Gifts to University of Missouri Extension in Vernon County are tax-deductible. A gift can be made in many ways. Outright gifts of cash, appreciated stock, real estate or farm inventory such as crops or even livestock are all potential ways to support the work of Extension. Planned gifts accomplished through a will, a revocable living trust, or a life insurance policy or with a beneficiary designation are all welcomed. You will want to consult your tax advisor when preparing any major gift.

Contact the Vernon County Extension Center for more information:

Pat Miller, County Program Director
Vernon County Extension
100 W. Cherry, Suite 2
Courthouse
Nevada, MO 64772
417-448-2560
Email: millerpd@missouri.edu

“What a man does for himself dies with him. What he does for his community lives long after he is gone.”

Theodore Roosevelt

Why are you being asked to help?

- Because you believe in the objectives and future direction of Extension
- Because of your personal involvement with Extension
- Because you recognize the importance of maintaining a strong flow of factual information to those needing knowledge
- Because you desire to invest in our youth, tomorrow’s leaders

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
 Extension
Live. And Learn.

