
2005 IMPACT REPORT - Healthy Indoor Air for America's Homes (Annual Report)

Report Due Date: January 15, 2006

Send completed form to: Montana State University - Extension Service
Attn: Michael P. Vogel
111 Taylor Hall
Bozeman, MT 59717

STATE _____

Person submitting report:

Name:

Address:

City:

Daytime Phone:

State:

FAX:

Zip:

E-Mail:

1. Number of IAQ "Train-the-Trainer" sessions done in the past year

County

District/Area

State

2. Number of educators trained

Extension Agents

Health Dept. Officials

Teachers

Utility Reps

Real Estate

Builders

Others (please list type and number trained)

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

2005 IMPACT REPORT - Healthy Indoor Air for America's Homes - page 2 of 3

3. What behavioral changes/actions can be documented as a result of your IAQ program(s)?
- How many families/consumers have stopped exposing their children to Secondhand Smoke? _____
 - How many consumers have had their homes tested for radon? _____
 - How many consumers have implemented Radon Resistant New Construction (RRNC) practices? _____
 - How many consumers have had their homes mitigated for radon? _____
 - How many consumers have had their homes tested for lead? _____
 - How many consumers have hired a professional to do lead abatement ? _____
 - How many consumers have hired a professional to measure formaldehyde levels? _____
 - How many consumers have taken steps to reduce/control levels of formaldehyde (vent, seal source, remove source)?

 - How many consumers have installed carbon monoxide alarm(s)? _____
 - How many consumers have taken steps to check/maintain/correct combustion appliances for combustion and carbon monoxide problems? _____
 - How many consumers have selected and used home pesticides more wisely to avoid IAQ-related health problems?

 - How many consumers have adopted safer remodeling practices to avoid IAQ hazards? (i.e. used low/no VOC products, used personal protection equipment to protect from IAQ hazards, etc.) _____
 - How many consumers have selected and used household (cleaning, hobby, auto) products more wisely? _____
 - How many consumers have detected and removed mold, mildew, and other biological IAQ hazards? _____
 - How many consumers have improved/corrected moisture levels in home? _____
 - How many consumers have visually inspected materials that may contain asbestos for damage or wear? _____
 - How many consumers have sent samples of material potentially containing asbestos to approved laboratory for analysis?

 - How many consumers have hired a professional to seal, cover or remove asbestos? _____
 - How many schools have adopted "IAQ Tools for Schools" guidance? _____
4. How many consumers have taken steps to reduce exposure to indoor asthma triggers in the home? _____
- other behavioral changes/actions (please list here)

2005 IMPACT REPORT - Healthy Indoor Air for America's Homes - page 3 of 3

5. How many consumers were reached via mass media?

- Newsletters, reports, or other publications created within your organization (circulation) _____
- Exposure in newsletters, reports or other publications created external to your organization (circulation) _____
- Website activity (hits/visits) _____

6. Describe any research activities conducted involving IAQ. Include the number of consumers involved/reached.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Thank you for completing this Impact Report!