

Teen Pregnancy Prevention and HIV Risk Reduction

Inputs	Outputs		Initial	Outcomes
	Activities	Participation		Intermediate	Long Term
What we invest: UOE Campus &amp; Regional Specialists Classroom Teachers Financial Support --DESE --release time for teachers Curriculum &amp; Educational Materials MissouriFamilies.org	What we do: Provide needs assessment, if needed Develop training &amp; educational materials Curriculum training Technical Assistance and Follow-up Support Provide research-supported data to CDC and other federal agencies to add to the academic subject matter Evaluation	Who we reach: UOE Regional Specialists Classroom Teachers Middle School and High School Students (via train-the-trainer model) DESE, CDC and other agency partners Policymakers (via research and other types of reporting methods)	What the short term results are: Increased knowledge in the subject matter area of teenage sexuality and pregnancy Increased awareness in the prevention of HIV and STDs Increased willingness of school districts to include abstinence, pregnancy prevention and HIV/STD prevention in the curricula Increased classroom time devoted to the issues of abstinence, pregnancy prevention, and HIV/STD prevention	What the medium term results are: Delayed onset of sexual activity Reduced high-risk sexual activity Decreased number of sexual partners Increased use of safe-sex practices	That the ultimate results are: Reduction in the number of teen pregnancies Reduced incidence of HIV and STDs among the target population Reduced medical costs associated with teen pregnancy Reduced medical costs associated with HIV and STDs