

Effective Sex Education Programs to Prevent Adolescent Pregnancy and Reduce STDs

Collaborators	Inputs	Outputs		Outcomes
			Initial	Intermediate	Long Term
CASPP (Campus Coordinator)	Annual contract with DESE; Curriculum training for regional staff; Technical assistance; Site visits to schools; Resources; Advice; Evaluation services; Reporting.	Annual contract negotiation with DESE; Fiscal management of contract; Annual Update meeting for regional specialists in Columbia; Final Report to DESE.	Regional Extension Staff will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participate in program • Provide leadership on teen pregnancy prevention in their counties; • Attend DESE-sponsored annual meeting; • Willingness to be trained on new curricula as they are identified for DESE by the CDC; • Conduct at least one curriculum workshop for teachers in the region each year 	Adolescents: Participation in curriculum unit in their classes that results in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reduced high risk sexual activity; • Delayed initiation of sexual activity; • Fewer sexual partners; • Increased use of safe-sex practices Teachers: Teachers will participate in two-day curriculum training in their regions and express an interest in implementing the curriculum in their classes Teachers will have implemented the curriculum in their classes within two years of being trained	Adolescents: Reduced Number of Adolescent Pregnancies and STDs
Regional Extension Staff	Commitment to being trained on curriculum; Recruiting teachers to local training workshops; On-going support to teachers	At least one curriculum training for teachers in each region each year
DESE	Funding; CDC representation;	Reporting to CDC; Successful continuation of CDC contract
Local School Districts	Substitute teachers; Release time for teachers to be trained; Approval to teach curriculum in classes	At least one teacher who has been trained in the curricula; At least 20 students who receive the curricula			