Goats Galore Shows and Seminar at Heart of the Ozarks Fair Grounds May 17th

The Pride of the Ozarks Goat Breeders Club invites you to a Goats Galore show to be held May 17th at the Heart of the Ozarks Fair Grounds in West Plains. The show will start at 8:30 am with a sanctioned ADGA Dairy Show. Open Dairy classes will start at 10:00 am followed by Goat Chariot races and a Meat Goat Show.

Helen Swartz, State Extension Small Ruminant Specialist from Lincoln University will give a seminar on using herbs to control parasites in goats at 12:00 pm. Dr. Swartz has two years of research data that she will discuss.

Goats do not need to be registered except for ADGA classes but will be inspected upon arrival. Only healthy goats will be accepted. This show is open to all youth and adults. Entry forms to participate are available at <http://coso14.triplod.com>.
