Section B – Leadership Experiences (23 points)

B1. Leadership experience – List 4-H offices you have held, committees you have served on, and activities where you have helped. Tell about your experience.

Year	What I Did	What I Learned

B2. Leadership Learning Experiences (1 page maximum typed or 2 pages handwritten)

You will use leadership skills in many ways the rest of your life. Describe how you are using the following three leadership skills to help others as well as yourself.

Understanding Self- Developing leadership relies heavily on inner strengths of the leader. You and those you are helping to build leadership skills need to feel confident and self-assured in order to effectively lead others. How have your 4-H experiences helped you better understand yourself?

Communicating- The best leaders are excellent listeners, careful observers of nonverbal communication, skilled in conversing informally in small groups and on the phone, able to obtain feedback from others and skilled at writing. Describe how you have effectively used your communication skills to lead an activity.

Getting Along with Others- Understanding and appreciating the people you meet is vital to success in leading groups. As a leader, you will need to gain the trust and support of the individuals in the group. Skills in meeting, accepting, caring, and trusting are basic to building teamwork. Include an example of how you helped a group get along.

- Remember, tell what you did, what you learned and how this has changed you or others.
