

4-H Meeting minutes (September 24, 2009)

In attendance: Kathy Berri, David Bonacker, Sandy Eberle, Shelly Isermann, Linda Jensen, Wendy Miller, Cindy Redman, Mary Anne Rose, and Melissa Scheer (acting as recorder)

Activity: Club Leaders made lists of their duties/ activities, shared most fun ones and most time consuming

Meeting minutes from August were corrected to indicate that Kathy Berri was to be removed from Dreamcatchers and Horsemanship bank accounts.

Treasures report – corrected to say balance of 3161.08

Club reports were abbreviated for time considerations.

Old Business:

- We have earned over $10 this month from the Schnuck's Fundraiser.
- Casey Miller presented an award to Kevin Engler, Missouri State Representative at farmers market, others lead games with the parachute.
- Ace Bronco Bunch 4-H Club agreed to put together the Hero Pack for the military family in Desoto
- Awards Banquet – the date was changed to November 8th so that more people could be in attendance. The theme will be "Patriotic" Sandy Eberle will call the VFW about getting a color guard. Motion was made, and passed to spend $1500 on awards for volunteers and members at the Awards banquet. 4-H members will be able to create stories, poems, or photo collages with a patriotic theme – attendees at the event will then vote on their favorite items with quarters.
- Clubs were asked to provide a list of supporters that should receive recognition in a newsletter.
- Melissa discussed starting county-wide project groups such as photography, chickens and rabbits.

New Business:

- Leadership Day will be January 9th, 2010
- Shelly Isermann will check on dates for Achievement Night
- Melissa handed out Re-enrollment papers (although some people did not pick them up).
- Melissa is collecting egg cartons for the embryology project, she needs 120 and has 58.
- Other new business – the Extension Council is looking for people to run for Extension Council. 4-H Volunteers and families are encouraged to help find nominees.

The next meeting was set to be October 29th (one week late).