 Number of 4-H Projects Completed _____
 Email address _____

- All 4-H members age 14 and over are encouraged to compete.
- The King and the Queen will be present and reign over all events during the 4-H Fair Week and present awards at events. Please do not run if you cannot attend fair week.
- Candidates must be in at least the third year of 4-H Club work.
- Candidates must be a member in good standing.
- Candidates may enter each year, but may win only once.
- 4-H members do not have to be nominated by their club to compete.
- Members will be assigned an interview time during Achievement Day.
- Members will prepare a 10 minute activity for the Clover Kids group. This could be teaching 4-H songs, participating in a game, demonstrating a skill, presenting information about 4-H, or leading another type activity. It should be appropriate for members 5-7.

Candidate will supply their own materials and equipment to complete the activity a number of times as small groups of young people rotate through each station. During one of the stations the candidate will be asked a number of questions about 4-H for the interview portion.

- Those that apply will receive a more detailed application that they should complete and return with them the day of the contest. This will be sent email if you have included your email address or it is available at www.extension.missouri.edu/lafayette/
- The Keith Edwards Memorial Fund generously funds this event.
