

Livingston County 4-H Junior Leaders
Sunday, November 9, 2008 @3:30 p.m.
Livingston County Extension Office

The Livingston County 4-H Junior Leaders meeting was called to order by President Kami Nelson.

Pledges were lead by Trent Putnam and Elizabeth Rounkles.

Attendance was taken those present by everyone introducing themselves and telling what club they are from and what they would like to get out of Junior Leaders.

Kami Nelson	Courtney Brown	Marcie Eggers
Daniel Noland	Orren Beck	Jordan Hall
Elizabeth Rounkles	McKenzie Garber	Trent Putnam

New members present were:

Jennifer Waits    Claire Rounkles    Gillen Gates

The treasures report was given by treasure Orren Beck. We currently have $9145.35 a deposit was made of $1400.00 from the Fair Concession Stand and REA.

Adult Leader Lois Turner gave the welcome to the members and told them a little about what the Junior Leaders Club is about and what Junior Leaders do. She also stated that it would be nice to see the report from our meetings in the news paper because the older people of the community like to read about what theyouth in their community have been up to.

State Exchange was mentioned that we would be exchanging with Erie Pennsylvania the end of July/first of August.

We will be hosting this year and hosting the next year. This is for ages 13 and Up. They will be staying with up for 5 days. Those interested in participating are: Kami, Courtney, Marcie, Elizabeth, McKenzie, Daniel, Orren, Gillen, Claire, Jennifer, and Trent. There will be a separate meeting for this event. It will be announced at the next meeting.

The Washington D.C. trip was also talked about. You need to be involved in Junior Leaders for two years prior to attending Washington D.C. trip to receive sponsorship from the Livingston County Junior Leaders. The amount depends on the number of members going and the funds that are available.

It was also mentioned that you must also participate in the community service projects that we do, attend the meetings and also work the fundraiser events that we have planned to also be eligible for these funds. Diane Kerns keeps track of the hours for everyone. If you would like to know your hours please ask Mrs. Kerns.
