All About Strawberries
Thursday, May 17, 6-7 PM
Rutledge-Wilson Farm Park
Cost: $7
Strawberries are fun to grow, and with a little help, yours can taste great! Learn what you need to know about growing and caring for strawberries in order to maximize your harvest.
Presenter: Patrick Byers
Preregister here or call 837-5949

All About Blueberries
Thursday, June 21, 6-7 PM
Rutledge-Wilson Farm Park
Cost: $7
Everything you need to know about growing and caring for blueberries to maximize your harvest. Blueberries are a very rewarding shrub to grow at home, and will produce buckets.
Presenter: Patrick Byers
Preregister here or call 837-5949

Insects in the Garden
Thursday, July 19, 6-7 PM
Rutledge-Wilson Farm Park
Cost: $7
Many kinds of insects can be found in your garden. Some insects are destructive. Others are beneficial. Learn basic knowledge of common garden insects and how to prevent the harmful varieties from ruining your garden.
Presenter: Patrick Byers
Preregister here or call 837-5949

Master Gardeners
Alaskan Cruise
Would you be interested in joining Master Gardeners from all over the world for an Alaskan cruise at the 2013 International Master Gardeners Conference? It’s happening September 7-14, 2013 and will include seminars and a trade show. Click here for more information.

Upcoming County Fairs
- Newton County - July 11-14
- McDonald County - July 19-21
Be sure to mark your calendars!

June Meeting
Our June meeting will take place at Jerry & Gwen Schroeder’s farm, Shine Hollow Ranch, on June 5 at 6:30 PM. Their address is 760 Cowan Ridge Rd, Powell, MO 65730.
A Busy Spring for Master Gardeners!

Here are just a few photos from some of our spring projects and activities. You can view additional photos on our website!

- Neosho Fish Hatchery Open House
- Extension Office Rain Garden Work Day
- Extension Office Rain Garden Work Day
- Rose Clinic at the Hoyez Farm
- Rose Clinic at the Hoyez Farm
- Annual Master Gardeners Plant Sale
- Annual Master Gardeners Plant Sale
- Annual Master Gardeners Plant Sale