

KNOWN & GROWN STL

Farmers we trust so you can trust them, too

Known & Grown STL supports farmers within 150 miles of St. Louis who are committed to chemical free farming that protects our soil, air, and water resources and to raising animals humanely. By purchasing products from these farmers, you are supporting the environment, your health, and the St. Louis local food economy.

Good Life Growing

Three Springs Farm LLC

Known & Grown STL is designed to promote and support the work of food producers and retailers who improve our food system, educate residents about healthy food choices, and shift behavior to create a thriving, equitable, and sustainable local food system.
