

NW Regional Extension Council

United Methodist Church, 104 W. Samuel, Hamilton, MO

Monday, January 14, 2019, 6 PM

Meeting called to order by John Murphy, Chairman; after a dinner and program by Michael Sweeney, Coordinator Missouri Bicentennial, State Historical Society.

In attendance:

Chris Wallace	Jackie Spainhower
Joe Frueh	Gina Luca
Shelly Holt	Jenna Monnig
Larry Werthmueller	Shaun Murphy
Michael Sweeney	Andy Luke
Wayne McReynolds	Debbie Davis
Jayla Smith	Cindy Wells
Ernie Nold	Meridith Berry
Jim Ball	Tracie Moore
John Murphy	Tom Fowler
Sharon Murphy
Jodie Kurtz
Della Tracy
Denise Jennings
Vanya Skroh
Riley Young
Annie Cruse
Sarah Lowrey
Dan Hausman
Bud Motsinger
Cheryl Corbin

Approval of Minutes; Dan Hausman moved to approve minutes, Chris Wallace seconded.

No Presidents' Report.

State Council Report by Chris Wallace and Dan Hausman: October meeting, there is community based research of people within communities. MU4U - a program to bring in old and new Council members to the campus in March. Dr. Stewart is now chief engagement officer for all four MU campuses. State Council looking to encourage district option for all counties in Missouri, a tax base for all counties.

No Old Business.

No New Business.

Regional Director Update: Hiring status: one starting soon, two interviews in January. Five more interviews with county Council interviews in February. There will be a tour of School of Law Students with clinics for veterans and other groups needing law assistance with visits throughout the state. The goal is to work with veterans and training for lawyers to be veteran advocates.

MU4U open house on April 13, on campus. This program is well attended by other universities that held them. Mizzou to You is a program bringing some university departments out to the people, such as athletics, sciences and Math. Science on Wheels, a program driven by Graduate students going to elementary and high schools.

Cooper County trying to get a district option on the ballot in April.

Announcements: Livingston County Extension in Chillicothe has bought its own building. John and Sharon Murphy celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary. Plant Sale at the University April 26 -27, featuring many tomato and pepper varieties.

Next Meeting May 1, 2019, at the Methodist Church in Hamilton.

Adjournment at 8:32.