"We'll start in the classroom and end in the vineyard for a complete learning experience."

Join University of Missouri Extension and The MU Institute for Continental Climate Viticulture and Enology for a hands-on vineyard pruning workshop on February 25, 2012 at Terre Beau Vineyards.

Grapevine pruning is an important cultural practice which impacts yield, disease incidence, fruit composition and wine quality.

This workshop will provide an opportunity to learn proper pruning techniques and gain practical experience.

The cost of the pruning workshop is $20 per person which includes a networking lunch.
