Gift versus Grant?
This is a guide only. Some awards may require discussion among the department, OSPA and Advancement.

Does the proposal being submitted or the project to be funded:

- Relate to funds from a government agency, quasi-government or flow through?
  - NO
  - Require regulatory approvals and monitoring?
    - NO
    - Require detailed expectations for deliverables (exchange) beyond regular progress reports?
      - NO
      - Require fiduciary/administrative responsibility over and above General reports, such as certification of expenditures, effort, facility user or personnel commitments
        - NO
        - NO
        - Received and administered by OSPA
      - YES
      - Received and administered by OSPA
    - YES
    - Received and administered by Advancement
  - YES
  - Received and administered by OSPA

- Have other special requirements such as terms of ownership of intellectual property, confidentiality agreements, licensing rights or non-compete clauses
  - NO
  - YES
  - Received and administered by OSPA

- Is the prospective donor a corporation/foundation/organization who should be considered a major donor for the University and should the relationship be managed for future cultivation and support?
  - NO
  - Received and administered by OSPA
  - YES
  - Received and administered by OSPA*

*Also reviewed by Advancement Corp. & Foundation Relations for relationship building purposes