Self-Directed Team
“A small number of people with complementary skills who are equally committed to a common purpose, goals, and working approach, for which they hold themselves mutually accountable for both results and performance.” MU Extension Self Directed Teams will understand and operate within the administrative boundaries of MU Extension.

Sources: