

INSIDE

Franchising: A Viable Alternative ..	2
Entrepreneur Training with Fast Trac	3
State SBIR/STTR Program Achieves Successful Results	4
Helping Workers and Employers Understand Federal Labor Laws ...	5
Small Business Training	6
Small Business Assistance	7

*"Challenges are gifts that force us to search for a new
center of gravity.
Don't fight them.
Just find a different way to stand."*

— Oprah Winfrey
O Magazine, October 2002

SBA Online Tool: MY BIZ for Women

The U.S. Small Business Administration has announced the launch of MY BIZ for Women, a new online tool designed to provide comprehensive business information and assistance to women entrepreneurs.

MY BIZ for Women is designed to be the first step for all women business owners, providing one-stop access to information for women entrepreneurs highlighting the best resources the government has to offer. The Web portal provides information on starting and growing a small business, gaining access to capital and contracting opportunities and links to other government agencies and SBA resource partners offering business counseling, a state-by-state listing of SBA's Women's Business Centers and other resource information. The MY BIZ for Women Web site can be found at <http://SBA.gov/women>.

SBA Administrator Hector V. Barreto says that women-owned small businesses in the United States are rapidly growing and they are starting businesses at twice the rate of all businesses. The introduction of MY BIZ for Women is critically important to help new women entrepreneurs start and grow businesses in this country. The SBA is committed to helping women entrepreneurs obtain access to information and opportunities that will allow them to break down economic development barriers, which will allow them to start and grow their small business.

MY BIZ for Women will provide easy online access to the latest information and business resources, serving as a single point of entry for women entrepreneurs to government resources. Highlights of the new Web portal feature up-to-date information on the issues of women in business, including Women's Business Data & Research; Inspiring Success Stories; Business Tips and Upcoming Events.

Women will be able to gain valuable insights into the world of entrepreneurship from monthly guest columnists who will share their wisdom and experience from unique perspectives. They can also subscribe to The Women's Perspective, a free SBA newsletter for women in business.

Article taken from www.SBA.gov

