

Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate ™

Resources to help you pass on Personal Possessions -

Monday, November 6th

9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

This workshop will be held in the Private Dining Room in the Robert E. Sechrest Field House at Mineral Area College. Call the St. Francois County Extension Office at 573-756-4539 to register. Cost for the workshop is $15 per person or $25 for 2 family members. Hurry to register, seating is limited.

Whether planning ahead or making decisions when someone dies, Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate?™ resources will help families:

- Understand sensitivity of the issues
- Determine what they want to accomplish
- Decide what's "fair" for their family
- Understand belongings have different meanings to different individuals
- Consider distribution options and consequences
- Agree to manage conflicts if they arise

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
 Extension

In cooperation with

University of Missouri, Lincoln University, U.S. Department of Agriculture and Local Extension Councils Cooperating

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/ADA INSTITUTIONS