(March 13 Speaker, Sherrie Hall)

Arbitrations are not always easily settled. Sometimes, unusual issues come up and cause difficulty moving forward with agreements. At our Labor Law Breakfast on March 13, Sherrie Hall with Spector, Wolfe, McLaughlin, O'Mara & Hall, LLC and Doug Bonney, Arbitrator, will explore unusual issues in arbitration. Topics discussed will include whether to reserve an opening statement if the other party has the burden of going forward with the case first, calling an opposing parties witness in your case-in-chief, issues with calling witnesses who are out-of-state or otherwise unavailable, and the risks of not having the grievant testify in a discharge case. Join us for a great discussion. There will be plenty of time for comments and questions.

Breakfast is at 8:00 a.m. The program starts at 8:30 a.m.
