Is St. Louis' labor market slowing or booming? How has it performed relative to other metro areas in Missouri and the Midwest? What do these trends mean for the region's construction and manufacturing sectors? These are all good questions. Mark White, with the University of Missouri Extension, will present his findings from sifting through the data on these questions and more.

Breakfast is at 8:00 a.m. The program starts at 8:30 a.m.
