An Introduction to Prevailing Wage & Service Contracting Laws

Do you want to contract with the government? If so, then prevailing wage standards will apply to you. To help businesses and workers better understand these laws, University of Missouri Extension is hosting three seminars that will provide an overview of each of the major laws impacting government contracting in Missouri.

Each seminar will last 1.5 hours and will focus on one of the major components of prevailing wage standards. A continental breakfast will be provided and materials included.
