MU Extension, 15th Annual 4-H Youth Futures Conference at MIZZOU

Kirkwood, MO- The University of Missouri Extension in Saint Louis County will host the 15th annual Youth Futures Conference at MIZZOU on Monday, July 17 to Friday, July 21, 2017.

The teens will have a campus experience with an overnight stay on the University of Missouri-Columbia campus. Students will stay in the college dorms and get the feel of what it is like to live on campus. In addition, students will:

- Learn about financial aid
- Attend workshops
- Attend social events
- Take practice ACT tests
- Discover student programs
- Learn enrollment procedures
- Participate in panel sessions
- Visit MU and LU colleges (such as Engineering and Journalism)

“I will be prepared for college and life after because of the Youth Futures Program,” said Nadia Maddex, a program participant. “I have been in the 4-H program since seventh grade, and I am a senior now.” “I am really excited to go to MIZZOU next week for my last year.”
