

Taney County Extension Council Candidate 2019
Short Bios

Eastern District Candidates –4 openings

Donna “Lynn” Craft – Lynn has worked in human resources, legal, healthcare and business related fields. Hobbies are gardening and grandchildren. She would like to see that business development and agriculture programs continue to be offered for the residents of Taney county.

Nicole Crocker – Nicole has been an agricultural educator with the Branson school district for 5 years and has a Masters in Natural and Applied Science. She would like to see a livestock show, showmanship clinics, and other educational agriculture workshops continue in Taney county.

Waunetta Howard – Waunetta is a lifetime resident of Taney county, retired from the Branson School district in 2013, and is married with 3 children and 3 grandchildren. She would like to see programs to meet the needs of low income/generational poverty be offered in Taney county.

Susan Martin – Susan has served as Executive Director of Mountain Country Homes of Hope (formerly Habitat for Humanity) for over 24 years. She is past president of the University Extension Council as well as having served on the boards of other, civic, community and non-profit organizations. She holds a Masters Degree in marketing and fundraising. She believes two programs that would be exceptionally beneficial to residents of our county would be budgeting for working, low-income families, and how to interview for a job and how to keep it once hired.
