Building Strong Families

Structure for Success

Key Points

• Set clear and realistic expectations. Give children tasks they are ready and able to do.

• Provide a reasonable amount of help and small rewards to make the task easier to finish.

• Remove things that block your children’s path to success.

• Know your children and their limits.