

Brad Colin Memorial Award

The Hudson Hustler's 4-H Club proudly sponsors this award, beginning in 2018, in memorial of Brad Colin, a long-time supporter of the Hudson Hustler's 4-H Club, Bates County Fair and youth in agriculture. His efforts and legacy will not be forgotten.

*Disclaimer – Hudson Hustler 4-H club members, along with youth involved in any Bates County 4-H Club and/or FFA chapter may be eligible for this award.

A $200.00 award and plaque will be awarded to the winner. Winners may win award only once during their 4-H and/or FFA career.

Qualification/Requirements:

- 1) You must be a current Bates County 4-H and/or FFA member.
 - 2) You must be exhibiting a project that will potentially sell in the livestock sale.
 - 3) You must be within the ages of 8 - 18 years of age.
 - 4) Application must be legible for the selection committee to review. May be typed, but must be in the applicant's words and applicant may be interviewed – in person – to verify information presented on award application.
-

Name: _____

4-H Club and/or FFA chapter: _____

List your 4-H and/or FFA activity involvement from this past year.

Describe your projects in 4-H and/or FFA (size, type, work involved) from this past year.

List activities and non-4-H and/or FFA leadership positions, academic or extracurricular honors or awards (elementary/middle/high school, community, service, volunteer, etc) received from this past year.

What are your goals and/or planned use for this award, if received?

Explain why you should be considered for this award.

In a brief paragraph, explain in your own words, why animal agriculture is important to you, your family or to people in Bates County?

Applicant's Signature: _____

4-H Club Leader and/or FFA Advisor Signature: _____

Application is due to the Bates County Extension Office by July 1, 2021 at 4:30 p.m. May be mailed to 1 N. Delaware St. Butler, Missouri 64730. For any questions, please call 660-679-4167.