NORTH MISSOURI PRODUCE AUCTION

is a partnership owned by a number of local shareholders who constructed a new facility near Jamesport for the purpose of selling produce, providing a market for interested growers along with a source of fresh produce. Perishable crops will be picked just hours before the sale.

The auction method is the fairest way to sell, as it creates a true supply and demand environment.

The auction is directed to wholesale buyers, such as stores, roadside stands, farm markets, etc. But anyone that can use produce in boxes or flat lots for canning, freezing, etc., is welcome to buy. There are always some small lots.

The idea of selling produce at auction was formed by several local growers who realized a need for a central point for growers and buyers to gather. Also, they had observed the huge success of similar auctions in other communities.

In case of inclement weather Plug Auctions may be rescheduled.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

• Anyone who grows produce within a 100-mile radius of the North Missouri Produce Auction, whether a large commercial grower or just a gardener with surplus vegetables, is welcome to consign.

• Sellers that do not grow their own produce or are outside the 100-mile zone need prior approval from the auction board.

• There is an 9-percent commission charge to support the auction.

• There will be packaging restrictions to keep the product as uniform as possible. Ask for our Packaging and Grading guide. New and used boxes will be available at the auction.

• Consignors will be assigned permanent numbers, enabling buyers to buy more consistently.

• Buyers need to have their sales tax number in our file or pay sales tax.
