4-H'er of the Month

Carson Rohaus of the Montrose Busy Beavers 4-H Club is the Dec. 4-H'er of the month. Why did you join 4-H?: All my friends were in it and I thought it would be fun. Describe 4-H: It's a club that helps you learn how to do different projects and teaches you leadership and responsibility. Projects Carson has taken: Hiking and Camping and Country Cured Hams. Favorite project and why?: Camping and Hiking. I like exploring new places. My favorite place has been Elephant Rock. What is the most important thing you have learned through 4-H?: Leadership. What officer or leader position have you held? And, what did you learn or like?: Pledge leader. I learned new facts about the American and 4-H flags. What is the most exciting thing you have done in 4-H and why did you like it?: Teen conference because I liked meeting new people. What are your future plans with 4-H?: Go on a future week long camping trip. How do you think you will use your 4-H skills when you grow up?: Citizenship and leadership skills used to help people when they are in need. Why should people join 4-H?: Because it is fun and you learn new things.

Leader statement: Carson was chosen by his peers to be the 4-H'er of the month, because of his enthusiasm for 4-H. Carson regularly participates in fundraisers and service projects with our club and is an active member with our Hiking and Camping projects. Carson always accepts responsibility with a smile on his face, and you can tell that he truly loves being in 4-H. One activity that stands out is when Carson and a classmate set up a 4-H booth at a school function, and gave a presentation about their experiences in 4-H.

General News

Henry County 4-H Council Minutes

November 16, 2020, 7:00 p.m. by Zoom

Erin Kitsmiller installed officers.

President, Bailey Carter

Vice President, Keon Engeman

Secretary, Seth Engeman

Treasurer, Carissa Caple

Reporter, Abby Jones

Historian/Photographer, Kelsey Carter

Liaison/Recruitments, Emily Taylor

Recreation Leader, Lane Wareham

4-H Civic Leader, Blake Wareham (not present)

President Bailey Carter called the Henry County 4-H Council meeting to order via Zoom after the installation of officers. Pledges were recited. Keon Engeman moved to correct the September minutes to show that Lane Wareham and not Blake Wareham called the September meeting to order. Kelsey Carter seconded the correction. Keon Engeman then moved to accept the minutes and Carissa Caple seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Carissa Caple presented the Treasurer's report. Keon Engeman moved to accept and Emily Taylor seconded. Motion carried.

Club reports were given by the Montrose Busy Beavers, Clinton Cougars, Clinton Cool Cats, Shawnee Indians, and Mt. Zion Lions. Clinton Christian Academy was not represented.

Old Business: A reminder that dues were $10 until December 1st and $20 after that, was given.

New Business: It was announced that the Extension office was closed this week, November 16-20th.

Carissa Caple volunteered to design our Henry County Missouri State Fair Banner. Erin will provide her with the specifications.

Keon Engeman moved that Janet Caple receive the Frank Graham Award for our county. Lane Wareham seconded the motion. Motion carried.

It was announced our next meeting would be January 18, 2021. There will not be a 2021 Energizer. Interviews for MRFs and delegate interviews will be announced at a later date. Applications for State Council are available. One person from each of the 8 regions will be selected for the State Council and others not serving at the state level would serve as Regional Council members. Regional Council would likely be asked to help State Council at larger events like Teen Conference and State Congress.

Meeting Adjourned at 7:25 p.m.

Montrose Busy Beavers 4-H Club Minutes

Welcome Officer Kate Wareham passed out agendas as members entered the 4-H meeting at Holy Fit Gym.

President Bailey Carter called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. on November. 3, 2020. Pledges were led by Hadley Carter and Emily Neuenschwander. Carson Rohaus and Drew Bailey led the group in a song.

Seth Engeman called roll and members did five sit ups or jumping jacks as requested by Health Officer Nate Bailey. Seth read the October minutes. Lauren Bailey moved to approve the minutes and Hadley Carter seconded the motion. Motion carried. There was no correspondence to be shared. Seth reported that from now on written minutes will be provided to members before the meeting for review. The minutes will no longer be read aloud at the meeting. A call for corrections/additions or approval will be called for and a vote recorded.

Lane Wareham reported a balance of $2336.78. Hadley Carter moved and Matthew Engeman seconded that the report be approved. Motion carried.

Project Reports: Members were reminded to check the LINK. Ham forms will be due Dec. 3rd.

Club Committee Reports: A sign up for committees can be found on Google docs.

Service Committee: Keon and Seth Engeman are collecting personal care items for Missouri Veteran Homes. Please bring at least one item to donate to each club meeting.

The Carter family is collecting shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child. Each family is challenged to fill at least one box or give a donation to fill a shoebox.

Old Business: October Health Challenge was to do 5 pushups and add 1 every day and don't get the Corona Virus. Members agreed they didn't do well with the pushup challenge, but were great about not getting Corona.

Nate Bailey moved that Janette Crowder be the adult co-signer on our club bank account. Blake Wareham seconded the motion and the motion passed.

Hadley Carter and Emily Neuenschwander presented new T-shirt designs to the club. Blake Wareham moved we chose Emily's design and Jesse Henzlik seconded the motion. A vote was taken and passed to choose Emily's design. An order form will be shared with members.

Carson Rohaus let members know a sign up for Germantown Turkey Shoot concession stand was on the back table.

New Business: The new health challenge is to try to eat at least one piece of fruit a day.

Drew Bailey moved and Keon Engeman seconded we have a Christmas party/meeting in December. Motion carried. A google document will be shared to decide on a date and activities.

A vote was taken on who would be the December 4-Her of the month. Carson Rohaus was selected.

Lane Wareham presented the budget on behalf of the Finance Committee.

Program: Stephanie Neuenschwander, dental hygienist, presented a program on how much sugar is in common drinks.

Keon Engeman presented a program about Veterans Day.

Kim Carter recognized and presented awards to members for the previous year.

Announcements: The next county council meeting will be November 16th at 7:00 p.m. at the Regional Office in Clinton.
