UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI EXTENSION COUNCIL
NOMINEES for JEFFERSON COUNTY ELECTION 2026

DISTRICT I
(Fox & Windsor School Districts)

YOLANDA CAMDEN – Recently moved to Jefferson County. Currently doing paralegal studies. Has three sons. Volunteer at Laclede Law Clinic and Food Bank. Interested in youth and agriculture. Hobbies include plants, gardening, flower bedding, lawn care and car mechanicals.

AALIYAH R. KINTD – Received a Bachelor's from Evangel University in Springfield, MO in Intercultural Studies and Psychology. Moved to Jefferson County during the pandemic to be closer to family. Currently the Public Engagement Manager for Jefferson County Library District. I oversee the programming and outreach districtwide in addition to my duties as a grant writer where I administrate the full grant lifecycle for awards. Additionally, marketing lead with duties including email campaigns, social media, and print or digital designs. In a professional capacity, I have partnered with MU Extension, Second Hen'd, the Jefferson County Beekeepers Association, Compass, Chestnut, Good Shepherd, Family Forward, and Rebuilding Hope in programming. Personally serve at church in Arnold and volunteer graphic design for the local nonprofit, Cornerstone Mission. Love that the MU Extension is locally rooted and empowering area residents toward greater independence, health, and knowledge of the world around them. A cohesive community identity brings people into alignment with their whole environment from the earth around them to their neighbors – a mission which is deeply compelling.
