Nerissa Ayers volunteered to lead a few Countywide youth in the Entrepreneurship project this year and unfortunately Show-Me Wares at the Mizzou Building was cancelled due to COVID-19.

Pettis County saw three youth participate in the Young Entrepreneurs Pitch Challenge. They are all from Brown 4-H Club; Hannah Wright, Hannah Ayers and Zachary Ayers. All three placed in their respective age divisions.

Pettis County 4-H would like to introduce you to Hannah Ayers. Hannah also participated in the Countywide Crochet project, it was pretty easy for her as she already knew how to crochet.

She has a suitcase full of items that she has crocheted this year. Her chickens are super adorable.

Her Entrepreneurship project is Tootsie's Treasure Box. Crocheted potholders to coin purses.

Contact: nayers4@yahoo.com

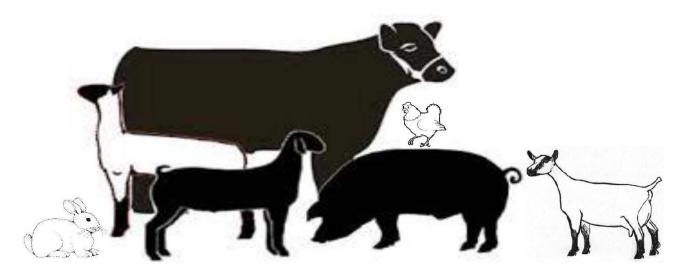

And this is Zachary Ayers, Hannah's older brother. Zachary creates soy candles with beautiful wood bases and other handcrafted items.

Zachary's business is True Fire.
