

MID-MISSOURI GRAZING CONFERENCE

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 2020

ST. MARTINS KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

537 Route T • Jefferson City, Missouri

ITINERARY

1:00-2:00 pm Registration & Vendor Time
 2:00-2:45 pm Break-Out Session 1
 2:45-3:05 pm Vendors
 3:05-3:50 pm Break-Out Session 2
 3:50-4:10 pm Vendors
 4:10-4:55 pm Break-Out Session 3
 4:55-5:05 pm Vendors
 5:05-6:05 pm Keynote Speaker
 6:05 pm Dinner & Door Prizes

BREAK-OUT TOPICS

- * Cool-Season Grass Establishment
- * Warm-Season Grass Establishment
- * Forage Systems for Grazing
- * Missouri's Fence Law
- * Recognizing & Handling Calving Problems
- * Pasture-Based Sheep & Goat Production

COME SEE THE TRADE SHOW
beginning at 1:00 pm

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

5:05-6:05 pm VALERIE TATE "Matching Stocking Rate to Forage Resources"

Valerie Tate is a graduate of the University of Missouri with a Bachelor's degree in Agronomy and Master's in Animal Science. She has worked for MU Extension as a Field Specialist in Agronomy in north central Missouri since 2013. Prior to working for MU Extension in Linn County, Tate spent 16 years working at the MU Forage Systems Research Center near Linneus, coordinating the daily activities of beef cattle - forage research projects conducted at the center. She and her husband Larry, have a beef cow-calf operation in Linn County.

Advanced Registration due by January 17, 2020 (non-refundable). $30 individual • $20 student

Late/Door Registration: $40 individual Includes: Dinner and Refreshments

Name: _____

Address: _____

City/Zip: _____

Telephone: _____ E-mail: _____

Mail to: Osage County SWCD • 1315 E. Main Street • Linn, MO 65051

Make checks payable to: Osage County SWCD

For more information: Megan Rudroff (megan.rudroff@mo.usda.gov) or Cindy DeOrnellis (cindy.deornellis@swcd.mo.gov)
 at 573-897-3797 ext. 3

<http://extension.missouri.edu/grazingconf/home.aspx>

The University of Missouri is an equal opportunity/ADA institution.

Soil & Water Conservation Districts
 in Central Missouri

PROGRAM SPONSORS

NRCS is an equal opportunity provider & employer.