

Taney County Extension Council Candidate 2023
Short Bios

Western District Candidates – 7 openings

Andrew B. Lambert – is a business executive with 40 years of successful business, leadership and mentoring experience. MBA degree. Would like to see successful business programs based on experience and economic principles.

Jeff Matthews – thirty-seven year police professional. Dedicated to God, family, and community. He would like to see more youth job trainings and vocational trainings in the county.

Anna M. Morrissey – Anna is a fourth generation Taney county native. She graduated from Branson High School and earned her BA degree from the University of Missouri. She has practiced law full time in Branson since graduating law school in 2005 in general practice including estate planning, general business services, consumer protection and criminal law. A former Municipal Court Judge, Anna has experience in all aspects of the law and from every perspective as she is currently the Municipal Prosecutor and City Attorney for Rockaway Beach, Missouri. Anna has also taught as an adjunct professor at OTC-Table Rock teaching American Government. She has also serviced on several nonprofit boards in Taney County. She is married to her husband, Bill Atkinson, and they have two children.

Jody Stahl – is married with two children, Taney county resident since 1998 and Taney County Recorder for 1 term (4 years). She would like to see more Health and Nutrition programs in Taney county.

Robert E. Wyer - Businessman who spent the early part of his career in Kansas as a commercial grocer. Hired by Home Depot Corporation, he was tasked with the opening of the Branson Home Depot store in 2007 after which he was sent to help trouble-shoot a Home Depot in Dallas, TX. Upon retirement he returned to Taney county where he pursues his hobby of collecting exotic house plants and volunteers with local gardening projects as a member of the Master Gardeners of the Ozarks.