

COUNCIL LEADERSHIP

21st Century Programs, Governance & Membership

Extension Council Youth Leadership Training Module

TOPIC #2 – Understanding and Working with Multiple Generations

Learning objectives:

- Understand differences between generations.
- Understand similarities between people regardless of age.
- Grasp the unique skills and perspectives that each generation brings to the table in decision-making.
- Gain strategies for communicating and effective decision-making as a group.

Handouts:

- Five Generations at a Glance
- Understanding and Working with Multiple Generations

Action steps:

- Discuss how your County Extension Council can gain a more balanced representation of all five generations.
- Identify actions your council can take to help all members understand multiple ages/generations, and see these differences as an asset for the entire group.

Produced by the Council Leadership Development Committee — Missouri Council Leadership Development - a partnership of the Missouri Extension County Council Leadership Council and University of Missouri Extension

(c) 2007 University of Missouri Board of Curators. Updated October 2011.

University of Missouri Extension does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran in employment or program.