

Module 5 – Competing with Honor - Guidelines

Training Outline

1. Introduction, Overview and Purpose
2. Present PowerPoint slides – Part 1 and 2 may be shown independently or together.
3. Discussion of each part.
4. Wrap-up

Overview

This module is designed to help adults – parents, staff and volunteers – understand how competition and character fit into 4-H clubs. It is divided into two parts.

Part 1 defines competition and describes some of the things you might expect from specific age groups of young people.

Part 2 addresses the Six Pillars of CharacterSM as they relate to competition and helps put winning into a character perspective.

Training Emphasis:

- What is competition and the dimensions of competition.
- What is the competitive process and the factors which contribute to success.

- Age appropriate activities for young people and when competition is appropriate.
- How the Six Pillars of Character and should be used as the standard for competition.
- How to apply the strategy for teaching character to competition.

Quiz Key:

Part 1- 1. N; 2. a,b,d; 3. d; 4. y; 5. y; 6. d.

Part 2 - 1. Y; 2. N; 3. h; 4. Y; 5.