

STL Community LAB Course Selection Rubric

No.	Course does not meet the criteria outlined in the question.
Yes!	Course definitely meets the criteria outlined in the question.

1. Focused on community development or community building
Does the course support community stakeholders in coming together to vision, plan, and implement a more prosperous future?	No.	Yes!
Does the course increase participation in the community building process by educating and supporting participants in the quest to build strong, whole communities?	No.	Yes!
2. Primarily benefits at least one (1) type of place-based entity or effort
Resident Organizations	No.	Yes!
Individual Resident Leaders/Changemakers	No.	Yes!
Community Development Corporations (CDCs)	No.	Yes!
Community Building Organizations (CBOs)	No.	Yes!
Community Building Efforts	No.	Yes!
Improvement Districts	No.	Yes!
3. Falls into at least one (1) of Community LAB's ten (10) course categories
Local Government 101	Real Estate Development
Neighborhood Leadership	Economic Development
Anti-Racist Communities	Civic Data
Community Organizing	Nonprofit Governance
Community Engagement	Coalition Building
If the course scores at least one (1) "Yes" in each category, it is eligible to be listed in Community LAB.

Please contact ffhktb@umsystem.edu if you are interested in seeing a training or event listed on STL Community LAB.